

LOUISVILLE JOURNAL
PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY
PRENTICE, HENDERSON, & OSBORNE, Great Street, between Third and Fourth.

PAUL R. SHIPMAN, Editor.

UNION STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR,
THOMAS B. BRADLEY, of Adair.
FOR STATE GOVERNOR,
RICHARD T. JACOB, of Oldham.
FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL,
JOHN H. HARLAN, of Franklin.
FOR STATE TREASURER,
JAMES H. GARLAND, of Clay.
FOR AUDITOR OF PUBLIC ACCOUNTS,
WILLIAM T. SAMUELS, of Hardin.
FOR FORMERLY OF LAND OFFICE,
JAMES A. DAWSON, of Hardin.
FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,
DANIEL STEVENSON, of Franklin.

STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE,
JAMES CUTHRIDGE, of George D. Prentiss.
JOHN H. HARLAN, of Franklin.
HAMILTON FORD, of Oldham.
JOHN W. BARE,
EDWARD KNOTT, to whom an encor-
agement should be addressed.

FOR CONGRESS,
ROBERT MALLORY, of Oldham.

FRIDAY, JUNE 26, 1863.

THE expedition under the command of Col. Saunders, which returned to Boston, Whitley county, on Wednesday, from an important and completely successful reconnaissance through Eastern Tennessee, must be regarded as one of the best planned and executed of the war. Starting from Williamsburg, in this State, he struck the East Tennessee and Georgia Railroad at Lenore, in Roane county, and destroyed the track as far up as Knoxville. Here he made a demonstration against the latter place, which had the effect to draw the rebel troops from above to its defense; then, closing them, he passed on toward Strawberry Plains, on the border of Knox and Jefferson counties, burned the bridge there sixteen hundred feet long, and also Slave Creek bridge, three hundred and twelve feet long. He then pushed forward to Mossy Creek, and destroyed the bridge three hundred and twenty-five feet over it. By this bold movement sixty miles of railroad were rendered useless, and 2,237 feet of bridging over three important streams. From this point he returned to the mountains with three captured pieces of artillery, two hundred boxes of ammunition, over five hundred prisoners, and one thousand stand of arms, and after having destroyed large quantities of military stores and saltpeter works.

This will render the position of Bragg very insecure, and, if as we perceive is the case, there has been a corresponding movement on the railroads in North Alabama or Mississippi, he will have the most important avenues of escape closed upon him. All this looks auspicious for a forward movement by Rosecrans, and all the indications are preparing us for speedy intelligence of the onward march of the Army of the Cumberland. The position of Bragg in Middle Tennessee is doubtless isolated; he can receive no reinforcements or supplies from the east until the damages done by Col. Saunders are repaired, and it will take long and hard work to do this, while from the west he can expect no aid, for Johnston has his hands full to take care of himself. We are much pleased with the looks of things on the rebel flanks, and hope soon to be able to record some glorious results as the necessary consequences of Col. Saunders's activity.

The position.—We have not unfrequently expected to receive, very soon, intelligence of vastly important events almost simultaneously from various directions. Now we are expecting such things, and, this time, we are very sure that we shall not be disappointed. We think that our expectation or the public's can scarcely be too much excited.

There is a man who, at Bull Run No. 2, abandoned his own brigade and wanders round like a madman, haranguing and gesturing and issuing orders to any one who would listen to him, and, as we suppose, is the only one who would. But he has a hundred thousand men under his command, and, if he can get away with it, he will have the most important avenue of escape closed upon him. All this looks auspicious for a forward movement by Rosecrans, and all the indications are preparing us for speedy intelligence of the onward march of the Army of the Cumberland. The position of Bragg in Middle Tennessee is doubtless isolated; he can receive no reinforcements or supplies from the east until the damages done by Col. Saunders are repaired, and it will take long and hard work to do this, while from the west he can expect no aid, for Johnston has his hands full to take care of himself. We are much pleased with the looks of things on the rebel flanks, and hope soon to be able to record some glorious results as the necessary consequences of Col. Saunders's activity.

Men's and boys' soft felt hats, all colors and qualities, and of the latest styles; also men's and boys' straw hats, and military hats, caps, and trimmings to order.

JUST RECEIVED

A large assortment of

MEN'S & BOYS' SOFT FELT HATS,

All colors and qualities, and of the latest styles; also

MEN'S AND BOYS' STRAW HATS

AND

MILITARY HATS, CAPS, & TRIM-MING.

DRESS HATS

OF OUR MANUFACTURE,

Always on hand. Price $5 for the best.

PRATHER & SMITH,

JES.

F. H. HEGAN

(Old House of Hegan & Escott), Manufacturer of Gilt Work and Dealer

in French & English Glass, Wall-Paper, Looking-Glasses,
Photographs and Autotype
Materials.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Particular attention is called to my assortment of

articles, which the public classes must suffer

from the want of knowledge of what is best.

My factory for Gilt Work is fitted with the most

modern and improved machinery.

Departure of Trains.

St. Louis, New Albany, and Chicago R. R., 7:34 A. M.
Louisville, Frankfort, and Lexington R. R., 7:34 A. M.
Louisville, Frankfort, and Lexington R. R., 7:34 A. M.
Lexington and Nashville R. R., 7:34 A. M.
Louisville and Nashville R. R., 7:34 A. M.
Louisville, St. Louis, and Chicago R. R., 7:34 A. M.
Louisville and Cincinnati, Indianapolis, and St. Louis R. R., 7:34 A. M.
Louisville and St. Louis, Cincinnati, and St. Louis R. R., 7:34 A. M.
Louisville and St. Louis, Cincinnati, and St. Louis R. R., 7:34 A. M.
Louisville and St. Louis, Cincinnati, and St. Louis R. R., 7:34 A. M.

Lucien Anderson, of Graves county, was nominated on the 15th inst. by the Union Democratic Convention, held at Paducah, as candidate for Congress to represent the First District. The selection is an excellent one, and the resolutions adopted by the convention are up to the very top-mark of loyalty and determination to prosecute the war vigorously. The proceedings will be found on first page this morning.

The official report of Brig.-Gen. S. G. Burbridge of the operations of his command from April 15th to May 24th, connected with the siege of Vicksburg and movements in its rear, will be found on our first page. His is the First Brigade, Tenth Division of Grant's Army Corps, and consists of the 15th and 67th Indiana, 382 Ohio, 23d Wisconsin, and the 17th Ohio Battery. The report is a succinct and exceedingly interesting narrative of stirring events.

A Louisianian's Experience in Dixie.—We have covered with a very intelligent and reliable gentleman, who left this city early in February last, and has been in the South ever since. Immediately after his arrival he enlisted in the Confederate army, and deserted a month ago—made his way through our lines, and returned here on Friday last. His accounts of the condition of affairs there generally are deplorable in the extreme, and are indeed worse than any history we have yet seen. He was, when in the army, a hospital steward, and, being perfectly free to go and come as he chose, his opportunities for observation have been much greater than they would have been otherwise. A perfect reign of terror has taken hold of the country, and the people flee from impending conscription, hiding in the hills and rocks, preferring, in most cases, a death by the slow process of starvation than being forced into the Confederate army. The conscript officers burn them down with greyhounds and cavalry—in some localities dragging them cruelly from their hiding places, and in any case death is the summary punishment for a refusal to accompany their brutal captors. He gives us an illustration where one man fled to the mountains in Tennessee for protection from the conscript, taking with him his wife and little children, and, when accidentally found by the side of the roads, he was dragged forth and cruelly shot because he would not be released, or permitted to come forth.

Some people, civilians outside of the army, say that they are subjugated, while the soldiers are indifferent, and have no opinion whatever, and do precisely as they are told, to do, believe them, or, if they have, are afraid to give extension to their thoughts. The officers are all in favor of monarchy, despising with all their might and soul any government after the fashion of the old one, and say that no earthly power shall ever again compel them to submit to a reconstruction of the Union on its old basis—nothing short of a monarchy, and that after the most tyrannical modus, will satisfy them. A fearful state of desolation and want exists among the men, women, and children. Clothing is rarely ever found, and, when it is, it is held at such exorbitant prices that three-fourths of the people are unable to buy. Food is not to be had for love or money. He tells us that, at one time, he had been without a mouthful to eat for four days, and that, accidentally finding one individual who had a loaf of bread, he bought it at the enormous figure of three dollars and a half.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

Our informant was arrested at Tullahoma, last March, charged with being a spy, and was tried by court-martial, but as no evidence was adduced against him, he was released and severely reprimanded. Thirteen others were tried at the same time, condemned to death, and subsequently executed. Among the number was a young man from this city named Overton, son of Mrs. Sarah Overton, a widow, residing on East street. He was shot on the 19th of April, and buried near Tullahoma, Tenn. He was one of the unfortunate young men induced to leave this State and go South by that arch-traitor Buckner, and has met the reward of his wickedness, poor fellow, by an untimely death at the guilty hands of those whom he deserted his country in an hour of desertion.

He, the soldier in most cases, are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

The soldiers in most cases are as indifferent as the citizens, though they are cared for before everyone else. They are compelled to buy their own clothing, and for that purpose receive fifty-two dollars commutation money, which will not purchase one single suit; and, unless some friend furnishes them with the necessary articles, they have to do without. They would all desert if not fearful of being recaptured, as in that case death is sure.

NOTICES OF THE DAY.

Merchants wishing to buy goods will attend the special auction sale this morning by L. Kahn & Co.

Just received—One hundred boxes horses and 50 boxes palm oil, 15 boxes glucose, 10 boxes of soap, and 10 boxes of various goods for the sale of the following: C. C. SPENCER, Auctioneer.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

Geo. T. Wood, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for the House of Representatives in the Kentucky Legislature, will address the people of Hart County at Horse Cave, Saturday, July 4.

W. W. Samson, candidate for

